STANLEY FAY IS BEATEN.

WILLIAM WALKER'S HORSE FAILS TO SUC CESSFULLY HANDLE 127 POUNDS.

Tony Bonero and Juggler, His Only Opponents, Both Lead Him at Finish of Handicap at Yonkers Sudden Rain Upsets Calculations.

New York, July 30.—William Walker's diminutive racer. Stanley Fay, carrying the crushing impost of 127 pounds, sustained his first defeat of the method of the former of the first state of the method a sixteenth. Tony Bonero and Juggler, his only opeonents, both led him home with extraordinary ease. Strenuous pursuit of the lightly weighted Sain borse, which forced a fast pace, left Stanley Fay so exhausted that Juggler swept by him in the stretch. This old Hamburg gelding is right now at the top of his form and is well worth consideration in good company. Mr. Walker remarked after the race that he timed Stanley Fay separately the first mile in 1:38, and that he was expecting his collapse long before it occurred.

Trainer J. J. Hyland's charges were prominent during the afternoon. Besides winning the feature with Tony Bonero, he took the mile condition race with Etherial and dominated most of the running of the maiden juvenile dash won by Bion, with Oxer, a good-looking Toddington colt that would have won but for trying to bolt the course at the stretch turn.

the maiden juvenile dash won by Bion, with Oxer, a good-looking Toddington colt that would have won a good-looking Toddington colt that would have won turn, or trying to bolt the course at the stretch turn. Chief Hayes, a new-comer to metropolitan tracks, inaugarated proceedings by defeating seven fast horses in the opening race. The winner was bid up by an agent representing William Walker from $600 to $1,200, but the horse was bought in with the customary $5 advance.

Interest in the race was materially enhanced because of the presence of Earl's Court and Queen Marzuerite. The pair had finished heads apart on Wednesday in a race that it was declared the filly should have won. The previous running was reversed today, notwithstanding, that Austin, an inferior jockey as commared with Powers, was astride Queen Marguerite. This tended to conlime the general solution entertained at the time that the crack including Powers, bugan and Walsh, have been under strict surveillance during the past ten days by the Pinkertons by order of the stewards of the Jockey Club. It is alleged that they have been seen in the company of Alex Smith, who was ruled off at Saratoga several years ago for alleged undue intimacy with a jockey.

Etherial was the first odds-on favorite to win, this presence in the second race under ninety-three pounds caused wholesale withdrawals, and but two inconsequential opponents. Casque and High Range, started against him. The running was one-sided, which won a head vistory in the succeeding race.

ADDITIONAL DEPARTURES FOR SARATOGA.

New York, July 30.—T. C. McDowell has gone to Saratoga with King's Daughter and Huck. The former will not be a starter in the Saratoga Handicap Monday, because her owner considers her out of place in a race of such class as this promises to be.

be. William Karrick has shipped Fashion Plate and Cohort from Yonkers to Sheepshead Bay, preparatory to sending them to Saratoga. He expects to go to the Spa tomorrow. Fashion Plate may be rested up throughout the Saratoga meeting. He has had an exacting campaign since spring and his owner believes that he will come to, the races in the fall a better horse for the proposed let-up. Cohort is scheduled for frequent racing at Saratoga.

NO RACING AT TIA JUANA.

Washington, D. C., July 39.—As a result of representations made by the Department of State in compliance with petitions signed by residents of Los Angeles and San Diego, the Mexican government has taken action which amounts to revocation of the concessions recently granted for a race track at Tia Juana, just across the international boundary line in the vicinity of San Diego. The promoters had been awaiting developments affecting California racing and had analyzed. awaiting developments affecting California racing and had made no move to construct the processed track. Representatives of the California Anti-Race Track League were active in securing the interven-tion of the American Department of State.

ARONDACK'S PERFORMANCES BRING OFFERS

New York, July 30.—James McLaughlin has refused several flattering offers for Arondack. He is so pleased with the Hastings filly since she defeated Alfred Noble and Fashion Plate in the Yonkers Han dicap and Field Mouse in the Knickerbocker, that he will not part with her for less than $15,000 Arondack has no stake engagements at Saratoga but Mr. McLaughlin will enter her liberally in the fixtures to be renewed in the fall at Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend and Belmont Park.

OFFICIALS FOR RENO MEETING.

Butte, Mont., July 30.—William Murray, manager of the Reno Jockey Club, has announced the follow in the Reno Jockey Club, has announced the follow in the Indiana for the Reno race meeting which opens August 17: Presiding judge, A. J. Blum; associate judge and clerk of the course, Earl McQuade; secretary, W. D. Phillips; paddock judge and assistant secretary, Z. G. Stebbins; clerk of scales, Earl McQuade; starter and general manager, William Murray.

BEDWELL OFFERS BONUS FOR APACHE.

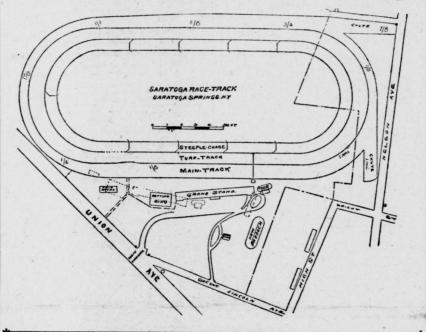

New York, July 30.—Apache, the four-year-old on of Ethelbert, had been in trainer John J. Hymd's possession only a few minutes when H. G, edwell offered a substantial advance over the $1,700 t which the horse changed hands after he had won a Tuesday. It is the consensus of opinion that R. Fleischmann, for whom Hyland trains, got a enuine bargain when Apache was led to his new marters.

VANCOUVER TRACK WILL BE FAST.

Vancouver, B. C., July 30.—The Lulu Island track is nearing completion and gives promise of being an exceedingly fast course. The soil is a clay loam, with a bottom of peat, and is as springy as a rubber blanket. The track is seventy-six feet wide on the turns, and not a stone as large as a pea can be found on any part of the grounds.

DIAGRAM OF THE NOTED SARATOGA RACE COURSE

The first race meeting over the Saratoga track took place in 1864. Very little racing had taken place while the Civil War was in progress, but, despite its tremendous and overshadowing influence. Leonard Jerome, W. R. Travers, John Hunter and some other choice spirits of the times who loved racing and the running horse, had a mile track constructed at "The Springs" and brought off quite a successful meeting for those days. It was a mile track of the regulation elliptical shape and was raced over without change through various managements until W. C. Whitney, in partnership with those who now control the track, took it over from G. Walbaum in 1901 and, buying some adjacent land, remodeled the place completely as to tracks and buildings. Instead of a single mile track it now has a main track of a mile and an eighth, with an inside track for training and, inside of that, a steeplechase course. It also has a chute for dashes of seven furlougs and another for mile races. The latter leads from the right of the grandstand into the main track in a way that cuts out the first turn from the homestretch with its troublesome and always dangerous crowding. The diagram here published shows the details of the course and its surroundings:

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING HORSES

Little change has occurred in this list since its last publication, but they are impending. The Saratoga meeting is at hand and in its progress many valuable stakes are to be won that will materially affect the stunding of the horses. Up to Friday night the records of the thirty leaders were:

SARATOGA STABLES RAPIDLY FILLING.

Celt and Joe Madden Probably Permanently Out of Plenty of Racing Material on Hand and Successful Jossip from the Spa.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 30.—There are now about 800 horses at Saratoga. It is expected that by Monday noon every one of the 1.400 stalls here will be occupied, Of the horses that were prominent performers earlier in the season. Celt and Joe Madden are probably permanently out of commission, while Plute and High Private are temporarily on the alling list. King James is working regularly, but shows signs of soreness. Uncle is going soundly and is likely to be a starter before the meeting closes. Previous to shipment here he galloped three-quarters in that sheepshead Bale. Saratoga Handicap will probably be Fayette and Montgomery. The latter will alone go if the track be heavy. Fayette was sent a half mile this morning in 48%. He probably will be given his final work tomorrow, as will about all the other horses that are being prepared for the handicap.

She galloped three-quarters yes terday in 1:17, and walked away without betraying any sign of soreness. As a consequence Woodford Clay and all his friends are not only hopeful but elated.

Clay and all his friends are not only hopeful but clated,
Phil Chinn arrived yesterday from Fort Erie, Pat Dunne, Charley Patterson, Andy Platt and W. J. Young reached here this evening. All the western turfmen express confidence in the ability of the Fort Erie borses to hold their own during the coming meeting. Olambala is being pointed for the handicap, in which he will have to carry 116 pounds. He is working well and John Ferriss does not object to the impost, the highest assigned to any three-year-old excepting the 122 of Fitz Herbert, which will keep the latter in the stable.

There are rumors that early last week Wintergreen did a mile and a quarter in 2:09. His work this week has been of a moderate character. Trained clockers are eager to see him let down. Phil worked Great Heavens with ninety-five up the land approach this morning in 2:12, the first mile being deap route this morning in 2:12, the first mile being deap to the this morning in 2:12, the first mile being deap to the this morning in 2:12, the first mile being deap worked a mile yesterday in romping style in 1:412.

Meeting in Pros

Detroit, Mich., July 30.—The summer meeting of the Windsor Racing Association begins tomorrow under conditions that promise to make it the greatest meeting ever held at this course. The Windsor plant has been practically remodeled since last summer. A new clubhouse and a picturesque paddock, built in the center of a grove of trees, make dock, built in the center of a grove of trees, make this particular part of the course the most attractive of any of the tracks on the Ganadian circuit. Several substantial-looking stables have been mereted on the ground that the club acquired last fall, and many often improvements have been made looking to the comfort of horsemen and public.

There is an abundance of racing material here, including nearly all of the stables that raced at Fort including nearly all of the stables that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which the exception of a few that left for Saratoga, which is the close of Hamilton; also been here since the close of Hamilton; also been considered in the close of the Latonia mercing. A few came on from California, including those of J. Cooper, The latter's band includes Work and Play and Kita.

There will be nineteen days of racing and judging by the interest displayed, the meeting should be more successful than any of its predecessors. It is expected that at least thirty bookmakers will be in line at the opening and this number will possibly be increased within a few days. The race following already here is of record proportions, including many visitors from Chicago, Louisville, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Witsham and New York. With the close of the Empire City mee

The Breeders' Futurity of 1910, to be decided at mext spring's Lexington meeting, received the entries of 180 of the most promising yearlings in this locality. GENERAL SANFORD'S STURDY VIEWS.

New York, July 30.—General Stephen Sanford, the veteran up-state turfman, declares that he feels greatly encouraged to continue his breeding operations by reason of the success which has attended racing under new conditions on the New York tracks so at this secanon He is quoted as follows:

He is quoted as follows:

The world lovers of the horse, and the community in general takes great interest in racing. It is a recreation that the masses enjoy. The legislation which has taken place and the passing of extreme laws discouraging to racing are to be regretted, but you know that these spasms from time to time—political, social and otherwise—spread over the country and nothing will stop it. It will move along and soon run its course. Good judgment and common sense in the end will always prevail."

General Sanford has no eligibles for this year's renewal of the Futurity. General Sanford bred, in Mohawk II., a colt that probably would have won the Futurity of 1905, which fell to Ormondale, if in Injury sustained in training at Saratoga soon after his triumpi in the Hopeful had not necessitated his retirement for the season.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

From time to time Daily Racing Form will publish a table of the comparative rating of those jockeys whose skill in the saddle has already been well demonstrated and of those who have not arrived but give promise of coming excellence. The handlean will divide these riders into four classifications, of which those admittedly in the front rank of their calling will be indicated by 100, thence downward from which advancement upward will come when instified by good riding. The table will also show the number of mounts, wins, seconds, thirds an unplaced from January 1, 1998, will be corrected from week to week, and, up to and including the racing of July 29, is as follows:

Baluarte, the champion racer of South Africa, has been shipped to England for a campaign against the best horses to be found there. Baluarte was bred in Argentina and is a brown colt by Batt—Gypsey and bred at Senor Unzue's stud at San Jacinto, near Buenos Ayres. He was bought and taken to South Africa when a yearling by Joseph Piecione, who sold him to Hon. Frank White, one of the leading furfmen of South Africa. From his start in racing he has been consistently a high-class racer, and, having won about all that is to be won in South African racing, finally reached that stage where the handicappers put a stop to his further chances. Last winter he won the rich Johannesburg Summer Handicap, with 129 pounds up, and since then has been given impossible weights. Of his being sent to Bigland the Transvanl Leader said:

Baluarte could only run at the quarterly meetings of the Turf Club, if one be allowed to except about two Germiston handicaps and, perhaps, the Durban July Handicap. It was obviously impossible to prepare the horse for such widely divergent races as are the principal events catalogued at these fixtures, for, as any trainer knows, you must sacrifice a horse's pactoget him to stay the Handicap or Goldfields course and vice versa, for the short dash up the straight in the Merchants' Handicap. Consequently, Baluarte's was proportunities were reduced to a minimum.
